North Shore Mustangs Well Represented at Touchdown Club of Houston

Houston, Texas: December 13, 2018 – The Touchdown Club of Houston (TCH) is pleased to announce that North Shore Mustangs players and Coach John Kay were honored at the 2018 Touchdown Club of Houston Awards Dinner. The event was held at the Houston Marriott Hotel on December 10, 2018. The Mustangs were represented by players Tony Bradford and James Taylor, and Coach John Kay. The Mustangs finished the season with a record of 10 wins and 2 losses, earning them a spot in the playoffs. Bradford and Taylor were named to the All-Touchdown Club of Houston team, and Kay was named Coach of the Year.

The Touchdown Club of Houston is a non-profit organization that has been honoring outstanding football players and coaches since 1958. The club is committed to promoting the game of football and supporting the education and development of young athletes. The 2018 awards dinner was a special event that celebrated the achievements of the Mustangs and their coaches. The Mustangs were honored with a trophy and a plaque, and the players and coaches were presented with awards. The Mustangs will be representing the Touchdown Club of Houston at the 2019 Touchdown Club of Houston Awards Dinner.
