

It may be possible to determine whether the Local Government, as the 1999-2000

is under Section 176.008(a).

The Local Government is not a "public utility" as defined in the Local Government Code, Chapter 176, Section 176.008(a), because it does not provide a service that is essential to the public health, safety, or interest.

The Local Government is not a "public utility" as defined in the Local Government Code, Chapter 176, Section 176.008(a), because it does not provide a service that is essential to the public health, safety, or interest.

The Local Government is not a "public utility" as defined in the Local Government Code, Chapter 176, Section 176.008(a), because it does not provide a service that is essential to the public health, safety, or interest.

The Local Government is not a "public utility" as defined in the Local Government Code, Chapter 176, Section 176.008(a), because it does not provide a service that is essential to the public health, safety, or interest.

The Local Government is not a "public utility" as defined in the Local Government Code, Chapter 176, Section 176.008(a), because it does not provide a service that is essential to the public health, safety, or interest.

The Local Government is not a "public utility" as defined in the Local Government Code, Chapter 176, Section 176.008(a), because it does not provide a service that is essential to the public health, safety, or interest.

The Local Government is not a "public utility" as defined in the Local Government Code, Chapter 176, Section 176.008(a), because it does not provide a service that is essential to the public health, safety, or interest.

The Local Government is not a "public utility" as defined in the Local Government Code, Chapter 176, Section 176.008(a), because it does not provide a service that is essential to the public health, safety, or interest.

The Local Government is not a "public utility" as defined in the Local Government Code, Chapter 176, Section 176.008(a), because it does not provide a service that is essential to the public health, safety, or interest.

The Local Government is not a "public utility" as defined in the Local Government Code, Chapter 176, Section 176.008(a), because it does not provide a service that is essential to the public health, safety, or interest.

... or more than one percent of the total value of the property.

Adm. Pro. ...