

SCHOOL HEALTH ADVISORY COUNCIL MEETING MINUTES

October 20, 2022

9:00 a.m.

Welcome/Introductions

Ms. Maria Juarez, current SHAC president, welcomed the meeting members in attendance. Participants attended via in-person and livestream. The meeting was also recorded and available for future reference. Breakfast was served with a blessing offered by Ms. Linda Sherrard. The meeting topic was

New Business

Dr. Mechelle Epps noted the fourth school-based Legacy Community Health clinic is now open in the district. The clinic is located by Cloverleaf Elementary School. Services such as vaccinations and testing for minors 0-18 years old is available.

Ms. Teresa Rainer, District Lead Nurse, had no new business to present. Ms. Juarez noted the remaining SHAC meeting dates: Thursday, December 8, 2022, Thursday, February 2, 2023 and Wednesday, April 5, 2023.

Meeting Highlights

Ms. Jessica Ginn, CPNP-PC, Sr. Director of School-Based Clinics, was the featured speaker. A such as the female menstrual cycle, cervical cancer vaccine preventative and cancers inherited from years after the first cycle. Irregular cycles not occurring every 21-45 days two years after the first, should be followed up with a healthcare provider. Polycystic Ovary Syndrome (PCOS) occurs to one in ten females and is the most common cause of infertility in women. 02 reW*nETQq-

MINUTOS DE LA JUNTA DEL CONSEJO CONSULTIVO DE LA SALUD ESCOLAR
20 de octubre de 2022
9:00 a.m.