

evaluation, reassignment, or other action. The school district shall ensure that the student's educational program is adjusted to meet the student's needs. The school district shall also ensure that the student's educational program is adjusted to meet the student's needs. The school district shall also ensure that the student's educational program is adjusted to meet the student's needs. The school district shall also ensure that the student's educational program is adjusted to meet the student's needs.

