CODE OF FAIR CAMPAIGN PRACTICES

There is a public interest in the fair and honest conduct of elections and public office. Every citizen has a moral obligation to use the lawfully obtained and lawfully conducted campaign funds to exercise their constitutional rights to a free and unannounced, free and fully and clearly expressed opinion on the issues.

THESE PRINCIPLES

- (1) I will conduct the campaign openly and publicly and limit attacks on my opponent to his or her opponent's record and stated positions on issues.
- (2) I will not use or permit the use of character defamation, whispering campaigns, libel, slander, or scurrilous attacks on any candidate or the candidate's personal or family life.
- (3) I will not use or permit any appeal to negative prejudice based on race, sex, religion, or national origin.
- (4) I will not use campaign material of any sort that misrepresents, distorts, or otherwise falsifies the facts, nor will I use malicious or unfounded accusations that impugn or malign the character, integrity, or patriotism of my opponent.
- (5) I will not undertake or condone any dishonest or unethical practice that tends to corrupt or influence the exercise of free elections or public office, or to prevent the full and free expression of the will of the voters, including any activity aimed at intimidating voters or discouraging them from voting.
- (6) I will defend and uphold the right of every qualified voter to cast a ballot in a free and fair election, and will not engage in any activity aimed at intimidating voters or discouraging them from voting.
- (7) I will immediately and publicly repudiate methods and tactics that I know or believe to be prohibited by laws governing elections.

I, the undersigned, candidate for election to public office with the State of Texas or campaign committee, hereby voluntarily subscribe to and signify my adherence to and compliance with the above principles and practices.
